Revenue Control System

3 Chopt's Revenue Control System (RCS) automates the mundane daily activities of data entry of payments, balancing bank deposits, and monitoring posting activity. Balances with other system to the penny allowing users to quickly identify balancing issues. Revenue Control shifts user focus to the exceptions by capturing discrepancies throughout normal processing.

- Web-based back-office solution for revenue tracking

- Import and categorize incoming payments

- Track payments through posting to patient accounts

- Workflow for balancing journal deposits, batch entry, lock-box processing, sending batches to posters, and more

- Track deposit bags from collection centers

- Import and classify bank adjustments

- Monitor daily activity in real-time

- Automate daily balancing and discrepancy reporting with bank deposits and posting activity

- Integration with remote deposit system for check images

- Search and display check images

- Operational and historical reporting

- View daily status on system home page

- Net collections and cash receipts journal reporting

- Full audit trails and drill-through reporting of daily activity

3Chopt
Solutions for the Business of Healthcare